Congressman Gus Bilirakis Serving Florida's Seniors

Fighting to Preserve Medicare

Medicare is a vital program that serves thousands of Florida seniors. Unfortunately, Medicare trustees say that this essential service will be exhausted in the near future unless Congress acts to protect and preserve Medicare for both our current seniors and future retirees. I am committed to working across the aisle on a plan to preserve Medicare so that future generations will receive the care they expect and deserve, while ensuring those 55 and older will see no changes.

Working to Protect Social Security

Like you, I have a great interest in the long-term financial integrity of Social Security, and I do not want to see the best interests of Florida's hard-working seniors forgotten as Congress addresses its long-term financial shortfalls. These commitments have never been more important to Florida seniors, and they have never been more important to me.
