Click here to read a story in Human Events about my new position as Chairman of the Emergency Preparedness, Response and Communications Subcommittee. It also discusses a recent letter I sent to TSA Administrator Pistole requesting more information on the effectiveness of screening procedures at airports.