“Today’s ruling reaffirms what the American people have been saying from day one: Obamacare is a job-killing takeover of our health care system that unconstitutionally forces people to buy health insurance,” Bilirakis said. “It’s time to repeal this law and replace it with solutions that provide affordable and accessible health care to Americans while protecting jobs and preserving our constitution.”