“January 1st looms large for families and small businesses facing the prospect of massive tax hikes,” Bilirakis said. “The package put forth today penalizes employers, kills jobs, and further weakens our sluggish economy. Congress has created incredible uncertainty that has led countless employers to delay hiring and expansion. It’s a dead end on our nation’s road to recovery.”