

As Vice Chairman of the Veterans Affairs Committee, Gus has been an advocate for veterans services. So when he found out that some people were taking advantage of veterans by charging them for filing claims with the VA, he took action. This week, the House passed a bill containing language that will reinstate criminal penalties on those who charge veterans unauthorized fees. Watch a recent news story on the issue here: