

Plant City, FL (April 13, 2011) – Today, Rep. Gus Bilirakis (FL-09) announced that he is hosting a college and financial aid fair for high school students and parents from 6-8 p.m. on Tuesday, April 19 at Strawberry Crest High School.

"The event will act as a one-stop shop for students and parents to learn more about financial aid resources, the college admissions process, and speak with school representatives face-to-face," Bilirakis said.

The college fair will feature representatives from regional colleges, local career education and technical training schools, and service academies. In addition, the fair will include breakout sessions with admissions officers from the University of Florida, financial aid experts from the University of South Florida, and representatives from the service academies.
