

Palm Harbor, FL (February 15, 2012) – Rep. Gus Bilirakis (FL-09) is pleased to announce that he is partnering with the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and other Tampa Bay area chambers to hold a veterans employment fair to connect employers with veterans, Reserve and Guard members, and their spouses.

"Our nation's veterans have upheld their promise to America, now it's time for us to help them," said Bilirakis, Vice Chairman of the House Veterans' Affairs Committee. "Creating jobs is my top priority in Congress, and that's why I am working to connect our veterans and their family members with employers in the Tampa Bay area."

More than 60 employers are expected to attend. Attendees are encouraged to dress professionally, bring resumes and be prepared for potential interviews.
