

Congressman's staff will be available at Hudson Library

March, 26, 2007

Washington, D.C. - Today, Congressman Gus Bilirakis (R-Palm Harbor) announced community outreach hours for his district.

On Wednesday, April 4, between 10:00 am - 12:00 pm, members of the Congressman's staff will be available to constituents at the Hudson Library at 8012 Library Road.

"I was elected to represent Florida's Ninth District and to advocate for them on the federal level, that is why this community outreach program is important to me," Rep. Bilirakis said. "My door is always open to constituents, and it is vital that my staff is as available as possible to speak with residents that may not otherwise have their voices heard."
