Washington, D.C.

- Today, Congressman Gus Bilirakis (R-Palm Harbor) announced new community outreach hours for his district.

Beginning on Wednesday, February 7, between 10:00 am - 12:00 pm, and continuing on the first Wednesday of every month, members of the Congressman's staff will be available to constituents at the Hudson Library at 8012 Library Road.

"It is important to me that I continue the great tradition of constituent service that the people of Florida's Ninth District have come to expect," Rep. Bilirakis said. "My door is always open to constituents, and I am happy to take this step to make my office even more accessible to the community."
